

How to Find Legal Resources that Serve Your Area

<http://tn.freelegalanswers.org> is a free online legal advice clinic for low-income Tennesseans who might otherwise fall through the cracks of receiving legal assistance. Qualifying users can post questions about their civil legal needs and receive basic legal information and advice from attorneys. The goals of this project are to increase access to justice for low-income Tennesseans, particularly in rural areas and to remove barriers to attorneys providing pro bono services.

1-844-HELP4TN and www.Help4TN.org

1-844-Help4TN (1-844-435-7486) is a statewide free phone line offering legal information and referrals to low-income Tennesseans. Help4TN will assist Tennesseans in finding resources to deal with civil legal issues. Those who cannot afford a lawyer may call the line at 1-844-435-7486 and leave a message any time. Calls will be returned by a licensed Tennessee lawyer.

www.Help4TN.org has links statewide and local resources for people with civil legal needs.

JUSTICE FOR ALL

A TENNESSEE SUPREME COURT INITIATIVE

The Supreme Court created an access to justice website that has information for people with civil legal needs. The site has information on how to get free legal help, how to represent yourself in court, links to court forms, and many other resources.

There is an interactive map on the website where users can click on their county and find information resources in their area. The map is available at:

<http://www.justiceforalltn.com/resources-location/map-view>.

There is also a list of all of the pro bono legal advice clinics and programs across the state. The clinics are listed by county. The link to the clinic list is

THE TENNESSEE

The TFJA is a project of the Access to Justice Commission. It is an alliance of faith-based groups in Tennessee who commit to providing legal resources to their congregations and communities. The TFJA was created to align needs seen at the local house of worship level with possible legal resources that are nearby, perhaps even within the same congregation. The notion is to connect with people in need in a place they already go to seek help with a problem. That place is quite often their place of worship. Information on the TFJA is available at <http://www.justiceforalltn.com/i-can-help/faith-based-initiative>.
